

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

PUBLISHED DAILY, AT NO. 21 WATER STREET, BY CHARLES GORDON GREENE.

VOLUME VII. NO. 103.

POETRY.

The following REQUIEM and HYMN were written for the Commemoration of the Death of Lafayette, which took place in this city on Saturday:

REQUIEM—Words by Grenville Mellen—Music by Lowell Mason.

Breathe mournful music round!
In eypress wreath your melancholy lyres,
And as ye sweep them, yield the quivering wires
To sorrow's gushing sound!

Shadow your brows, and weep!
A nation's voice peals from the booming sea,
Grief's far, faint requiem, o'er the Great and Free,
Laid in his marble sleep!

He's pass'd within the veil;
And over him, long and long lament,
A world's woe breaks upon the filaments,
In farewell and in wail.

We hear an empire's tread;
A land, 'mid shade of banner and of plume,
Pours, from one mighty heart above the tomb,
Its tribute to the dead.

One pulse is echoing there—
The far-voiced clarion and the trump are still,
And man's crus'd spirit to the changeless will
Bows in rebuke and prayer!

Gather about his pall,
And let the sacred memory of years
That he made glorious, call back your tears,
Or light them as they fall!

HYMN—Words by Isaac McLellan, Jr.—Music by G. J. Webb.

His race is run, his battle's o'er,
He leads the armies forth no more,
The booming gun, the tolling bell,
Have paid to him the last farewell!

He vanished like the glorious sun
When his appointed course is run:
Yet long a brilliant track of light
Marks where he melted from the sight.

His name, as passing years shall roll,
Shall brighten shine on glory's scroll;
Old age shall love to tell his fame,
And youth with reverence speak his name.

That name, shall like a beacon star,
From the dim past, cast light afar;
And the world's long riding tide,
The star of Lafayette shall guide.

From the N. Y. Mirror.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS, OR NOTES BY THE WAY.

BY NATHANIEL F. WILLIS.

Turkish military life—a visit to the camp—Turkish music.

A half hour's walk brought us within sight of the pasha's camp. The green and white tents of five thousand Turkish troops were pitched on the edge of a stream, partly sheltered by a grove of noble oaks, and defended by wicker batteries at a distance of thirty or forty feet. We were stopped by the sentinel on guard, while a messenger was sent in to the pasha for permission to wait upon him. Meantime a number of young officers came out from their tents, and commenced examining our dresses with the curiosity of boys. One put on my gloves, another examined the cloth of my coat, a third took from me a curious stick. I had purchased at Vienna, and a more familiar gentleman took up my hand, and after comparing it with his own black fingers, stroked it with an approving smile that was meant probably as a compliment. My companions underwent the same review, and their curiosity was still unsat when a good-looking officer, with his cimeter under his arm, came to conduct us to the commander-in-chief.

The long lines of tents were bent to the direction of the stream, and, at short distances, the silken banner stuck in the ground under the charge of a sentinel, and a divan covered with rich carpets under the shade of the nearest tree, marked the tent of an officer. The interior of those of the soldiers exhibited merely a stand of muskets and a raised platform for bed and table, covered with coarse mats, and decked with the European accoutrements now common in Turkey. It was the middle of the afternoon, and most of the officers lay asleep on low ottomans, with their tent-curtains undrawn and their long chibouques beside them, or still at their lips. Hundreds of soldiers loitered about, engaged in various occupations, sweeping, driving their tent-stakes more firmly into the ground, cleaning arms, cooking, or with their heels under them playing silently at dominoes.

Half the camp lay on the opposite bank of the stream, and there was repeated the same warlike picture, the white uniform and the loose red cap with its gold boulion and blue tassels, appearing and disappearing between the rows of tents, and the bright red banners clinging to the staff in the breathless sunshine.

We soon approached the splendid pavilion of the pasha, unlike the rest in shape, and surrounded by a quantity of servants, some cooking at the root of a tree, and all pursuing their vocation with a singular earnestness. A superb banner of bright crimson silk, wrought with long lines of Turkish characters, probably passages from the Koran, stood in a raised socket guarded by two sentinels. Near the tent, and not far from the edge of the stream, stood a gaily-painted kiosk, not unlike the fantastic summer-houses sometimes seen in a European garden, and here our conductor stopped, and kicked off his slippers, motioned for us to enter.

We mounted the steps, and passing a small entrance room filled with guards, stood in the presence of the commander-in-chief. He sat on a divan, cross-legged, in a military frock-coat wrought with gold on the collar and cuffs, a sparkling diamond crescent on his breast, and a cimeter at his side, with a belt richly wrought, and held by a buckle of dazzling brilliants. His aid sat beside him, in a dress somewhat similar, and both appeared to be men of about forty. The pasha is a stern, dark, soldier-like man, with a thick, straight beard as black as jet, and features which look incapable of a smile. He bowed without rising when we entered, and motioned for us to be seated. A little conversation passed between him and the consul's son, who acted as our interpreter, and coffee came in almost immediately. There was an aroma about it which might revive a mummy. The small china-cups, with thin gold filigree sockets, were soon emptied and taken away, and the officer in waiting introduced a soldier to go through the manual exercise by way of amusing us.

He was a powerful fellow, and threw his musket about with so much violence, that I feared every moment, the stock, lock and barrel would part company. He had taken off his shoes before venturing into the presence of his commander, and looked oddly enough, playing the soldier in his stockings. I was relieved of considerable apprehension when he ordered arms, and backed out to his slippers.

The next exhibition was that of a military band. A drum-major, with a proper gold-headed stick, wheeled sixty-six fellows with all kinds of instruments under the windows of the kiosk, and with a whirl of his baton, the harmony commenced. I could just detect some resemblance to march. The drums rolled, the "ear-piercing fife" fulfilled their destiny, and trombone, serpent and horn showed of what they were capable. The pasha got upon his knees to lean out of the window, and, as I rose from my low seat at the same time, he pulled me down beside him, and gave me half his carpet, patting me on the back, and pressing me to the

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 9, 1834.

PRICE $6 PER ANN. IN ADVANCE.

WORCESTER RAILROAD RE-FRESHMENT HOUSE.

BOSTON, J. S. AMES, at the head of the Railroad, in rear of the office, Washington street, is prepared to furnish ladies and gentlemen with every variety of refreshments usually found in such an establishment—except ardent spirits. He has fitted up and furnished a large Saloon for ladies, which is in full view of the Railroad for nearly a mile, and will be handsomely lighted every evening.

1. 25—The Refreshment House, No. 12 Essex street, near Boylston Market, continues to manufacture all kinds of Confectionery, which can be had wholesale and retail, cheaper than can be found elsewhere in the city.

2. 26—He also takes this opportunity to tender his thanks to his former customers for their very liberal patronage in years past and solicits therewith the public generally for the future.

T & THS. may 20

COMMERCIAL HOUSE.

No. 9 COMMERCIAL STREET, BOSTON.

JOHN E. HUNT begs leave to inform his friends and the public that the Boston Office is now open and the business of the Establishment. Having had a long experience in keeping a genteel "Restaurant," and eating house, he dares himself that the reputation which he has gained will ensure him a liberal patronage.

3. 27—Clubs, Parties, Engine and Fire Companies, can be accommodated at short notice, with every thing which the season affords. Coffee, Soups and refreshments, at all hours, and the Bar will be found stocked with the best of Liquors and Wines.

4. 28—Merchants in the neighborhood of Commercial wharf, Ship Masters, and the numerous business men in that part of the city, are respectfully invited to call and inspect the conveniences and accommodations of this place.

5. 29—A large, extensive but private Boarding House. Gentlemen intending to take the Southern Packets at the neighboring Ships, and County Traders, will find airy rooms, good accommodations and prompt attendance, convenient to their business, and at the same time retired, comfortable, and "at home."

6. 30—J. E. H. pledges himself to devote his undivided attention to the establishment, and will ensure the public an orderly, well conducted house.

7. 31—The Boston and Providence Union Line of Stages put up at this establishment. Stage Books for the Boston, Leominster, Westminster, Templeton, Athol, Greenfield, Brattleborough, and Albany Mail Stages are kept at this House for those Lines.

JOHN E. HUNT.

WESSIONVILLE HOTEL.

The subscriber having taken the above mentioned long and well known establishment, formerly kept by Silas Wesson, Esq. which has undergone a thorough repair, and been newly furnished throughout, begs leave to inform the former customers, the present customers, and all who may hereafter favor him with their patronage, that his house will be well supplied with the demands of the season, and that he will be prepared at all times to accommodate those who may call upon him. His bar will be furnished with Choice Old Wines, Fruits and other Refreshments.

The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

LUKE BEAL.

WESSIONVILLE, Westboro, May 22, 1834.

OLY OLD COUNTRY HOUSE.—HINGHAM.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public that he has taken the above named establishment, which is put in good order for the reception of the company. Gentlemen can be taken to engage in good attendance in every department, for the convenience of those who may favor him with their company.

6. 2—The House is well known to need a description, it being one of the most pleasant and fashionable places of resort within the vicinity of Boston.

Hingham, May 12. JOHN STRONG.

ROBINSON CRUSOE HOUSE.—CHELSEA BEACH.

The subscriber having built a House on this well known and beautiful beach, at the Point of Pines, so called, is now ready to receive the public. The situation of the place and the purity of the air render it a most healthy and agreeable resort. He has spared no pains in the construction of the house, to make it convenient and pleasant to those who may favor him with their company.

7. 3—The House is well known to need a description, it being one of the most pleasant and fashionable places of resort within the vicinity of Boston.

Hingham, May 12. JOHN STRONG.

OLD COUNTRY HOUSE.—HINCHINHAM.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public that he has taken the above named establishment, which is put in good order for the reception of the company. Gentlemen can be taken to engage in good attendance in every department, for the convenience of those who may favor him with their company.

8. 4—The House is well known to need a description, it being one of the most pleasant and fashionable places of resort within the vicinity of Boston.

Hingham, May 12. JOHN STRONG.

NEWTON RAIL ROAD HOUSE.—NEWTON.

The subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has taken that number of years the spacious basement story of the new building recently erected, and known by the name of Codman's Buildings, in Wilson's Lane, on the westerly side of the United States Bank, a few feet from State street, which is fitted up as good as any of its class in the vicinity of Boston. His table will be furnished in a satisfactory manner; fln and shell fish, of various descriptions, kept alive, and served up at short notice. His bar will be supplied to the general taste.

9. 5—The subscriber will be constantly provided with the luxuries of the sea, the Bar stocked with the choicest Wines, Liquors, &c. and no pains or expense will be spared to make the establishment an agreeable retreat for those who may favor it with their patronage.

10. 6—Any of the above articles made to order and repaired by the subscriber.

11. 7—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

12. 8—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

13. 9—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

14. 10—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

15. 11—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

16. 12—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

17. 13—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

18. 14—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

19. 15—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

20. 16—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

21. 17—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

22. 18—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

23. 19—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

24. 20—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

25. 21—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

26. 22—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

27. 23—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

28. 24—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

29. 25—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

30. 26—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

31. 27—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

32. 28—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

33. 29—The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or the season.

34. 30—Carriages and horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boards, and others. Stage passengers and others can be supplied to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston, and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Books for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately.

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1834.

Great Democratic Meeting in Berkshire County.—Agreeably to previous notice, a large number of the Democratic Republicans of Berkshire County, assembled at Cheshire, on the 28th ult. The Committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, having prepared themselves for the occasion, at about 12 o'clock, M. a procession was formed, under the direction of Col. Isaac Howland, of Adams, and Major Simon W. Wright, of Dalton, and proceeded to the Meeting House, where the Chair was taken by Israel Cole, Esq. of Adams. After an appropriate prayer by the Rev. JOHN LELAND, that distinguished divine and patriot addressed the assembly in a short speech, which, like every thing that proceeds from him, was sound in doctrine and able in execution.

Mr L. commenced his very able address by saying that he stood publicly pledged to participate in the support of the rights of man, the liberty of conscience, and the good of his country, so long as he could speak, or wield a pen—and that, being thus publicly pledged, he should not decline the invitation of the assembly to address them upon that occasion. He said if "the leaders of opposition would point out a better line of administration than that which has been in operation for the last six years, knowing that they themselves were not to be the agents of it, they would render good service to their country. This new light we would receive with great avidity and thankfulness. But, for this we have hitherto looked in vain. To find fault with what is done, without showing what could be done better, is no mark of a patriot or statesman. Let those fault-finding chieftains be notified now, if they never have been before, that their opposition is viewed by democratical republicans to be the child of hatred to the man whom the people have delighted to honor above them, and who will not bend before them; as well as the effect of ambition to rise into the chief seats of the synagogue themselves and be called Rabbi—President, and Rabbi—Secretary."

He then proceeded to examine the Bank question, and the upright and honest course of the President in regard to it—the vote of censure passed by the Senate—the Gold Bill, &c. &c. ; and upon reading the plain, but conclusive arguments of this patriarch of democracy, our only regret is that our limits will not permit us to spread them at length before our readers.

After the delivery of the Address, which was listened to with the most profound attention, the Committee appointed for that purpose, reported a series of excellent resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, and from which we select the following:—

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, the prominent and leading measures proposed and advocated by the President of the United States, are well calculated to bring back the Government to the pure principles of democracy, as recognised by the people in 1776, and again in '98 and '99, and we have full confidence in the administration of the General Government.

Resolved, That in whatever light we view the services of Andrew Jackson, whether in defending our frontiers from Indian massacre—in driving British invaders from our shores, or his efforts in the Cabinet, we behold the same lofty sentiments of patriotism, the same devotion to the welfare, prosperity, and best interests of the country.

Resolved, That the U. S. Bank, by increasing its discounts previous to the last Presidential election to the unparalleled amount of seventy millions of dollars, for a purpose too plain to be misunderstood; and by the most rigid and unexpected enticements, at other times, to distress the People and coerce them into its support; by its want of good faith towards the People of the United States in seeking to distress and ruin individuals for the purpose of securing its re-charter; by its resistance and defiance of the power of the Representatives of the People, and refusal, in violation of its charter, to permit an investigation into its affairs; by its reckless attempts to invade our ballot-boxes and corrupt our liberties: has forfeited all claims to favor, and merits, and will receive the indignation of the Democracy of this nation.

Resolved, That the Senate of the United States, in rejecting the nomination of Mr Taney, (a man doomed by the great adviser of the Senate—the Bank) evinced a spirit unbecoming that distinguished body, and disregarded the wishes of the great mass of the American People.

Resolved, That we approve of the measures of the Administration generally, and especially in the removal of the depositories from the U. S. Bank, as its tendency has been to cripple the efforts of a monied aristocracy in their advances to power, which would otherwise have become dangerous to the liberties of the people, and perhaps in their more remote consequences would have subverted the Government.

Resolved, That the late pressure in the money market, though real to some extent, was in the main a creature of fancy, and was created and made to stalk abroad through the land, (like the Ghost of Banquo) for political effect, by grasping, but unsuccessful Demagogues.

Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the patriotism and integrity of Martin Van Buren, Vice President of the United States, and consider the abuse heaped upon him by the enemies of the Democratic party, the best evidence of the purity and firmness of his principles.

Resolved, That his recent sentiment, "That the interest and honor of the people demand unqualified and uncompromising opposition to the Bank of the U. S.," is but a repetition of the views he expressed in October, 1832, to a Committee appointed at a public meeting held at Shocco Springs, N. C. to inquire his opinions upon certain subjects occupying a share of the public attention, viz: "I am unreservedly opposed to a renewal of the charter of the U. S. Bank, and approve of the refusal of the President to sign the bill, passed for that purpose, at the last session of Congress, as well on account of the unconstitutionality as the impolicy of its provisions."

Resolved, That we approve of a National Convention, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States; and while we most cheerfully acquiesce in any fair expression of the opinion of the Democracy, we would take occasion to say, that the nomination of Martin Van Buren, the distinguished and worthy son of New York, for the former office, will meet with our decided approval.

The exerc's in the Meeting House being concluded, the company returned to the Tavern of Mr Waterman and partook of an excellent dinner. The utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed, and every thing was conducted in the most becoming and unexceptionable manner. The toasts were orthodox and pithy, and the whole proceedings of the meeting reflect great credit upon all who participated in them.

The following Letter from Mr RUSH, was addressed by that gentleman to a committee of democratic citizens of Mercer county, Pennsylvania, and was written in reply to a communication from them conveying to him a resolution passed at a public democratic meeting, and hired Thomas Cross, a garrulous little sailor, to give tippy a drubbing. Cross went out, and perceiving the constable to be profoundly employed in examining a bundle of miscellanies, which he supposed to be stolen, saluted him with a broadside in the rear, and sent him sprawling forward his whole length. Defence—"Shouldn't a done it, if I hadn't been put up to it, by the bar-keeper?"—Committed for trial at the Municipal Court.

The accessory before the fact.—George Wright, the bar-tender, who treated Cat's-paw Cross, and pointed out the obnoxious constable, to his tender mercies, was ordered to recognize in the sum of $100, for trial at the Municipal Court.

Raymond Hunt, the owner of the rum-trap, concerning the smuggling operations of which the fracas originated, was fined $10 and costs, for selling spirits without a license.

William Harrison—a bull-headed mulatto, was in the habit of butting ladies off the side-walk, when sober enough to run. He was also fond of playing dumb, and "making wry faces and megrim at ladies, who were rather delicately situated," as Veteran Reid elegantly expressed himself in his thorough going testimony.—Two months in the house of correction.

The sentiments contained in your letter on some of the important features of the present political crisis, are such as find an echo in my own bosom. As you remark, the "issue of bank or no bank" is forced on the nation." It must be met at the approaching elections. They teach in medicine, that when a formidable disease pervades a country, as a plague or yellow fever, all other diseases partake of it, or as an eminent physician has expressed himself, "wears its livery." What is true in medicine, is now true in politics. The bank is the political epidemic. All other questions wear its livery. Let those who defend it succeed, and not only does the bank itself succeed, but all questions supported by the bank party. More than this: If the bank shall prove powerful enough to fight its own way up, it will not only be able to fight up all the other questions, and feelings, and designs, that have hitched themselves to its chariot wheels, will as certainly be able now and henceforth, to fight down every thing opposed to it. It will be able to shape the entire policy of the country, at its will and pleasure. This is my belief. I think that it results, unavoidably, from the positions, maintained by the bank, on which the issue is made up. It will be remembered, that it claims a right to spend what monies it chooses, including the public funds lent to it on deposit, in a crusade against the President.

It calls this crusade self defence, the attack having been the President's constitutional opposition, in his veto and other messages to Congress, to the renewal of the bank's charter. Of course, it may and would embark in a similar crusade against any and all others, giving like provocation; that is, expressing opinions against the renewal of its charter. It might so handle any of the state governments, our own for example, when provoking it; or any of the state banks, all of which it has avowed its power to "crush," and would we may infer, crush, in fact, if provoked. It hardly need be added, that the spirit which proclaims its determination to hunt down Presidents, even like counterfeitors, will a fortiori, as lawyers say, be ready to hunt down all private persons venturing on opinions against the renewal of the charter. Thus, we shall all be persecuted together, by a tyranny the most odious perhaps existing in any country, in alliance with the same amount of pecuniary means, an imperium in imperio, responsible, not to the people at large, but merely to its own body of stockholders.

I cannot think the freemen of this country, will ever submit to so dangerous as well as odious a misrule, and referring to a part of your letter, I shall be surprised if anti-slavery do, so many of whom I believe to be pure minded citizens, attached to the principles of democratic truth in government. For, has not the bank illustrated, to the utmost, an unlawful claim of control over the press, by avowing its purpose to employ, to that end, as much of its incorporate funds as it pleases? And has it not illustrated the full dangers of a secret, as well as irresponsible institution, by lately shrouding its affairs from the just scrutiny of the nation? In my opinion, it has done both, in aggravated ways. On these grounds, were there no others, I regard it as an engine of tyranny to individuals, and alarm to the community, sufficient to rouse the best exertions of all classes, to extricate it effectually from the land. May such be the result of the coming elections; which, on account of the issue joined, and also that on its trial the great body of the people will be fighting an enemy loaded with bags of money as the avowed weapons of his warfare, I shall hold them to be elections of deep concern to our liberties.

Renewing my thanks for your kind letter, and the honor of your resolution, I remain, gentlemen, with great respect, your obedient servant and fellow citizen,

RICHARD RUSH.

To Wm. Maxwell, Wm. Scott, and Joseph Kerr, Esqrs.

The result of the election in Portland will be announced by the Telegraph, this morning, in advance of the arrival of the steamboat Macdonough. We hope the Bankites will have their mouths all made up to cheer and shout, immediately, so that they may be enabled to get through before the returns from the interior of the State are received—for when they come, the Bank men will not need any of the Wethersfield weed to help them cry.

The P. M. General has issued a Circular, intended to obviate the prevalent abuses of the franking privilege, which at present exist. In publishing this Circular, the Globe says, "We have no doubt that if the Bank of the United States were called to account, and compelled to pay up for every publication it has made and circulated through the mail, this single acquisition of dues, fraudulently detained, would pay off the debt of the Department."

The quarter eagles are issued from the Mint. The Pennsylvanian says, "the quarter eagles made their debut yesterday, and were so musical and interesting in their appearance, that they were much applauded. They will soon be abundant in circulation, and will supply a want in the currency, which has been productive of inconvenience. The Bank men are blank men, whenever they get a glance at these Benton Mint Drops."

Specie.—Amount imported as per returns received at the Treasury Department, from the 12th of August (the last publication) to the 4th of September, was $1,177,639 00

Exported during the same period, 37,945 00

Excess of imports, $1,139,695 00

We understand that there was $50,000, in specie, entered at our Custom House during the last week, and none exported during the week.

Distress.—It is computed that, after paying the whole of the National Debt, there will be a surplus in the Treasury of the U. States, on the first of January next, of TEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

Messrs Luther Loomis, Samuel Ingham, and Lance lot Phelps, have been nominated by the democratic party in Connecticut, to fill the vacancies in the Congressional delegation of that State.

POLICE COURT.

A Cat's Paw.—A bar-keeper of an unlicensed drunks, in Ann street, suspected that one of the Constables was on the look out for his contraband traffic, and hired Thomas Cross, a garrulous little sailor, to give tippy a drubbing. Cross went out, and perceiving the constable to be profoundly employed in examining a bundle of miscellanies, which he supposed to be stolen, saluted him with a broadside in the rear, and sent him sprawling forward his whole length. Defence—"Shouldn't a done it, if I hadn't been put up to it, by the bar-keeper?"—Committed for trial at the Municipal Court.

The accessory before the fact.—George Wright, the bar-tender, who treated Cat's-paw Cross, and pointed out the obnoxious constable, to his tender mercies, was ordered to recognize in the sum of $100, for trial at the Municipal Court.

Raymond Hunt, the owner of the rum-trap, concerning the smuggling operations of which the fracas originated, was fined $10 and costs, for selling spirits without a license.

William Harrison—a bull-headed mulatto, was in the habit of butting ladies off the side-walk, when sober enough to run. He was also fond of playing dumb, and "making wry faces and megrim at ladies, who were rather delicately situated," as Veteran Reid elegantly expressed himself in his thorough going testimony.—Two months in the house of correction.

The sentiments contained in your letter on some of the important features of the present political crisis, are such as find an echo in my own bosom. As you remark, the "issue of bank or no bank" is forced on the nation." It must be met at the approaching elections. They teach in medicine, that when a formidable disease pervades a country, as a plague or yellow fever, all other diseases partake of it, or as an eminent physician has expressed himself, "wears its livery." What is true in medicine, is now true in politics. The bank is the political epidemic. All other questions wear its livery. Let those who defend it succeed, and not only does the bank itself succeed, but all questions supported by the bank party. More than this: If the bank shall prove powerful enough to fight its own way up, it will not only be able to fight up all the other questions, and feelings, and designs, that have hitched themselves to its chariot wheels, will as certainly be able now and henceforth, to fight down every thing opposed to it. It will be able to shape the entire policy of the country, at its will and pleasure. This is my belief. I think that it results, unavoidably, from the positions, maintained by the bank, on which the issue is made up. It will be remembered, that it claims a right to spend what monies it chooses, including the public funds lent to it on deposit, in a crusade against the President.

It calls this crusade self defence, the attack having been the President's constitutional opposition, in his veto and other messages to Congress, to the renewal of the bank's charter. Of course, it may and would embark in a similar crusade against any and all others, giving like provocation; that is, expressing opinions against the renewal of its charter. It might so handle any of the state governments, our own for example, when provoking it; or any of the state banks, all of which it has avowed its power to "crush," and would we may infer, crush, in fact, if provoked. It hardly need be added, that the spirit which proclaims its determination to hunt down Presidents, even like counterfeitors, will a fortiori, as lawyers say, be ready to hunt down all private persons venturing on opinions against the renewal of the charter. Thus, we shall all be persecuted together, by a tyranny the most odious perhaps existing in any country, in alliance with the same amount of pecuniary means, an imperium in imperio, responsible, not to the people at large, but merely to its own body of stockholders.

I cannot think the freemen of this country, will ever submit to so dangerous as well as odious a misrule, and referring to a part of your letter, I shall be surprised if anti-slavery do, so many of whom I believe to be pure minded citizens, attached to the principles of democratic truth in government. For, has not the bank illustrated, to the utmost, an unlawful claim of control over the press, by avowing its purpose to employ, to that end, as much of its incorporate funds as it pleases? And has it not illustrated the full dangers of a secret, as well as irresponsible institution, by lately shrouding its affairs from the just scrutiny of the nation? In my opinion, it has done both, in aggravated ways. On these grounds, were there no others, I regard it as an engine of tyranny to individuals, and alarm to the community, sufficient to rouse the best exertions of all classes, to extricate it effectually from the land. May such be the result of the coming elections; which, on account of the issue joined, and also that on its trial the great body of the people will be fighting an enemy loaded with bags of money as the avowed weapons of his warfare, I shall hold them to be elections of deep concern to our liberties.

Renewing my thanks for your kind letter, and the honor of your resolution, I remain, gentlemen, with great respect, your obedient servant and fellow citizen,

RICHARD RUSH.

To Wm. Maxwell, Wm. Scott, and Joseph Kerr, Esqrs.

The body found in the box mark X, sent from New York in one of the packets, came originally from Philadelphia, and was intended to have been forwarded to Dr. Mussey, Professor of Anatomy at Dartmouth College.

Cholera at Halifax.—From the 26th to the 30th August, 517 cases, 62 deaths—59 discharged.

Sheridan Knowles came passenger in the packet ship Columbus, which arrived at New York, on Friday.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of

Don Juan Bautista Bernabeau, His Catholic Majesty's Consul General for the United States. This distinguished gentleman sank, on the 3d inst., under a very painful malady, which he bore for a long time with exemplary fortitude. He was born at Alicante, in Spain, on the 14th of June, 1772, and served his King, in honorable stations, upwards of forty years.—Phil. Nat. Gaz.

Sweeping Paper.—A little paper, just five-by-seven, has reached us from Westfield—but whether in Massachusetts, or some other State, it sayeth not. It is called, "The Broom," and has the following motto: "It is with deep regret that we record the death of

Don Juan Bautista Bernabeau, His Catholic Majesty's Consul General for the United States. This distinguished gentleman sank, on the 3d inst., under a very painful malady, which he bore for a long time with exemplary fortitude. He was born at Alicante, in Spain, on the 14th of June, 1772, and served his King, in honorable stations, upwards of forty years.—Phil. Nat. Gaz.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of

Don Juan Bautista Bernabeau, His Catholic Majesty's Consul General for the United States. This distinguished gentleman sank, on the 3d inst., under a very painful malady, which he bore for a long time with exemplary fortitude. He was born at Alicante, in Spain, on the 14th of June, 1772, and served his King, in honorable stations, upwards of forty years.—Phil. Nat. Gaz.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of

Don Juan Bautista Bernabeau, His Catholic Majesty's Consul General for the United States. This distinguished gentleman sank, on the 3d inst., under a very painful malady, which he bore for a long time with exemplary fortitude. He was born at Alicante, in Spain, on the 14th of June, 1772, and served his King, in honorable stations, upwards of forty years.—Phil. Nat. Gaz.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of

Don Juan Bautista Bernabeau, His Catholic Majesty's Consul General for the United States. This distinguished gentleman sank, on the 3d inst., under a very painful malady, which he bore for a long time with exemplary fortitude. He was born at Alicante, in Spain, on the 14th of June, 1772, and served his King, in honorable stations, upwards of forty years.—Phil. Nat. Gaz.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of

Don Juan Bautista Bernabeau, His Catholic Majesty's Consul General for the United States. This distinguished gentleman sank, on the 3d inst., under a very painful malady, which he bore for a long time with exemplary fortitude. He was born at Alicante, in Spain, on the 14th of June, 1772, and served his King, in honorable stations, upwards of forty years.—Phil. Nat. Gaz.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of

Don Juan Bautista Bernabeau, His Catholic Majesty's Consul General for the United States. This distinguished gentleman sank, on the 3d inst., under a very painful malady, which he bore for a long time with exemplary fortitude. He was born at Alicante, in Spain, on the 14th of June, 1772, and served his King, in honorable stations, upwards of forty years.—Phil. Nat. Gaz.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of

Don Juan Bautista Bernabeau, His Catholic Majesty's Consul General for the United States. This distinguished gentleman sank, on the 3d inst., under a very painful malady, which he bore for a long time with exemplary fortitude. He was born at Alicante, in Spain, on the 14th of June, 1772, and served his King, in honorable stations, upwards of forty years.—Phil. Nat. Gaz.

It is with deep regret

TREMONT THEATRE.

THIS EVENING, September 9, 1834.
Will be performed Tobin's celebrated comedy of
THE HONEY MOON!

Duke Aranza Mr. Barrett
Rolando Smith
Jaques Finn
Julian Miss Clara Fisher

To conclude with the laughable Farce of BOTHERTHON!

Thady O'Brien Mast Burke
Rose Miss McBride

* Doors open at 7 o'clock. Performance commence precisely at 12 past 7.

TF Prices, 1s. and 2d. Dlers of Boxes $1. Third Tier of Boxes 75 cents. Pit 50 cents. Gallery 25 cents.

A strong and efficient Police is employed, who are strictly charged to preserve order in every department of the Theatre, and its immediate vicinity.

No checks taken at the door can be transferred, and Gentlemen frequenting the Theatre are requested not to give their checks away.

MARSHAL'S SALE.—United States of America, & District of Massachusetts, Boston, September 14th, 1834. Present to a witness before the District Court of the United States, I do hereby give notice that I shall sell by public auction, to the highest bidder, at New Bedford, on Friday, the 19th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M., the big SARAH MARIA and her apparatus. All persons interested will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

J. L. SIBLEY, Marshal.

CO-PARTNERSHIP DISSOLVED.—The Co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the firm of BAXTER & BULLARD, is this day by mutual consent dissolved.

ROBERT A. BAXTER,
AMASA BULLARD.

South Reading, Sept 6th, 1834.

The HOTEL, in South Reading, formerly conducted by Baxter & Bullard, will be continued by the subscriber, who is authorized to settle all demands.

AMASA BULLARD.

S 8-118208*

BOSTON AND HINGHAM.—FALL ARRANGEMENT.

Two Days a Week.

The Steam packet GENERAL LINCOLN, Capt George Head, will on and after Monday, Sept 3 leave Hingham and Boston as follows, until further notice, viz:

LEAVE HINGHAM LEAVE BOSTON
At 7 o'clock A. M. At 9th o'clock A. M.
11th " A. M. 4 " P. M.
Sept 6 epft

NEW ENGLAND ANTIMASONIC ALMANAC.—No. 4, for 1835.—This Almanac is now in the press, and will be ready for sale by the latter part of September—great care has been taken in the original and select matter, to make it interesting and useful to its readers, and in point of Astronomical calculations, it will not be inferior to any other book of the kind.

The PEOPLE'S ALMANAC, for 1835, is also published by the subscriber, and is now ready for sale. This Almanac is devoted to Historical subjects, remarkable events, adventures, and natural phenomena—illustrated with numerous engravings.

P. S. Orders for "the trade" supplied on favorable terms, by JOHN MARSH, 64 Washington st.

S 8-118208*

FOR SALE—A NEWSPAPER ESTABLISHMENT, located in the vicinity of Boston, having an extensive circulation, with a run of job work and advertising worth $10000 per annum. The Type are nearly new and the assortment of Job Type, as to quality, is not exceeded by any country office in the vicinity.

The terms of payment will be liberal—credit can be obtained for a large balance of the amount, from 1 year to 24 months from Jan. 1835. Ill health is the only inducement for the proprietor to offer the establishment for sale.

Any one wishing to purchase can obtain further information by applying at this office.

3w-5 sept 6

AMERICAN MAGAZINE OF USEFUL AND ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE.—No. 1, vol. 1, for September—containing upwards of seventy articles, and illustrated with twenty Engravings by the Boston Bewick Company.

The success which has attended the publication of the best Magazines from the English Press, has led to preparations for a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make this work strictly what its title indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain all articles of interest to its patrons which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have entered into, both with and without the intention to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work honorable to its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty Splendid Engravings, appeared on the first of September, and will be continued monthly, containing between forty and fifty imperial octavo pages, and be furnished at the low price of 25 cents.

Portions of Biographical Sketches of distinguished Americans—Views of Public Buildings, Monuments and Improvements, in this country, will form an unceasing source of instruction and gratification—Engravings and descriptions of the character, habits, &c. of Beasts, Birds, Fishes and Insects, together with every subject connected with the Geography, History, Natural and Artificial resources of the country, illustrated in a familiar and popular manner.

FREEMAN HUNT, Agent, of the Boston Bewick Company, 47 Court st.

Editor throughout the United States who will give the above Prospectus a few insertions in their respective papers, shall be entitled to one year's subscription to the same.

Boston, Sept 5, 1834.

3w-5

TEAMSTERS ATTEND.—Proposals will be received until the 10th September ensuing, for the transportation of the Stone for the Bunker Hill Monument.

The Proposals must state the price per ton, of 13 cubic feet, at which it will be taken from the quarry in Quincy, and landed on the Hill near the Monument. The whole quantity required will be upwards of two thousand tons, several hundred of which are now ready, and the remainder will be in the course of the ensuing season.

Any further information required will be given upon application to the Building Committee, or by SOLOMON WILLARD, Superintendent, at the quarry.

The Proposals must be sealed, and directed to the "Building Committee of the Bunker Hill Monument," and left at the Mutual Fire Insurance Office, State street, on or before 12 o'clock of the 10th of September next.

CHARLES WELLS,
JONA. D. NEARY,
GEORGE DARRAGH,
JOHN P. THORNDIKE,
CHARLES LEWIS HTON.

Building Committee.

P. S. Assistance will be given in loading the teams at the quarry, and no delay whatever will be experienced—and one man will assist in unloading them on the Hill. The largest blocks do not weigh over six tons, and a large proportion are of much smaller dimensions such as are very convenient for loading.

1810 Aug 29

NOTICE.—The co-partnership existing between the subscribers is this day by mutual consent dissolved. The affairs of the concern will be adjusted by E. K. Whitaker.

E. K. WHITAKER,
A. R. FROTHINGHAM.

Boston, Aug. 12, 1834.

20

BOARDING AND SCHOOLDING FOR CHILDREN.—A respectable Lady has opened a Private School, for Children, from ONE TO TWELVE years of age, with convenience attached to the School for boarding such of the scholars as may require such an accommodation. The said School is situated in the rear of the building No 654 Washington street, commonly known by the appellation of the Green Store. The Lady can give unexceptionable references, as to character, &c. For further particulars, apply at the School Room, as above.

1810 Aug 29

A few gentlemen can be accommodated with board at the above place.

TRUE G. WHITTINGTON,
JOHN WARREN, Jr. Assignees.

1810 Aug 29

PRIVATE SCHOOLS.—MISS HOBART, respectfully begs leave to inform parents and guardians at the south part of the city and the public generally, that she has opened a School, at No 654 Washington street, corner of South Boston Bridge, for the Private Instruction of young Ladies and Misses in the English branches, &c. The course of Instruction will embrace all the branches usually taught in English schools, together with Drawing, Painting, French, Embroidery, &c.

Miss H. is from past experience and strict application to the improvement of those entrusted to her instruction and care, flatters herself that she shall be able to give satisfaction deserving patronage.

Term commenced Sept. 1. Apply as above for admission, terms, &c. Scholar received during the term.

1810 Aug 29

SILVER PLATE, PLATED WARE, AND JEWELRY REPAIRING SHOP.—No 1 SPRING LANE.—The subscriber respectfully informs the inhabitants of Boston and vicinity, that he has taken the shop recently a novel—by the author of Brambley's Midwinter—a novel—by the author of Green Store, formerly occupied by the Mr Holyoke; where he intends to repair Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Plated do., of every description; Britannia Ware, Lamps &c.

N. B. Jewelry of all kinds manufactured at the lowest prices.

JOHN GUNN, 1810 Aug 29

law3m

MARSH, CAPE & LYON.—133 Washington street, have for sale—

Gale Midwinter—a novel—by the author of Brambley's Midwinter—a novel—by the author of Green Store, formerly occupied by the Mr Holyoke; where he intends to repair Jewelry, Silver Ware, and Plated do., of every description; Britannia Ware, Lamps &c.

1810 Aug 29

Subscriptions received by MARSH, CAPE & LYON, 133 Washington street.

1810 Aug 29

CONFECTIONERY.—The subscriber respectfully informs the inhabitants of Boston and vicinity, that he has taken the store lately occupied by Mr T. J. VINTON, at 1810 Washington street, and will continue to supply Candies and Parties with Ice Creams, Sherbet, French Fruit, Confectionary, Cordials, &c. of as good a quality and as cheap as can be obtained at any other establishment in the city.

AZELL BOWDITCH.

I cheerfully recommend my former customers to Mr BOWDITCH, believing him to be competent to give them entire satisfaction.

T. J. VINTON.

1810 Aug 29

SHAKERS' HERBS.—2000 pounds of the different kinds, in pound packages, making a complete assortment. Also, a very super or quality of ROSE WATER, distilled by the Shakers, just received and for sale in quantities to suit, at GEYER'S Medicine store, 104 Hanover st, junction of Salem st.

1810 Aug 29

DR. CALDWELL ON PHYSICAL EDUCATION.—Thoughts on Physical Education—being a discourse delivered to a convention of teachers in Lexington, Ky. on the 6th and 7th of Nov. 1833.—By Charles Caldwell, M. D. This day published by MARSH, CAPE & LYON, 133 Washington street.

1810 Aug 27-1m

ANTIQUES FOR CASH.—HOW & JONES, 69 Milk street, have just received a complete assortment of seashells, &c. &c.

Also a good assortment of Boots, Shoes and Hats, which will be sold low for cash.

1810 Aug 29

ANTHRACITE COALS.—Warranted equal to any ever come to this market—broke, screened and delivered to any part of the city for $7, per 2000 lbs. cash, when ordered or on delivery—for sale by the subscriber, at his Coal Yard, next south Arch Broad st. Orders left at his order box, Mechanics' Reading Room, or at No 16 Custom House street.

1810 Aug 29

WANTED—A Cook and an assistant, (Americans) who are acquainted with the business, and who can bring good recommendations—the highest wages will be paid for those of the above description, and none other need apply—enquire at this office.

1810 Aug 29

HOUSE WANTED.—A genteel, centrally situated House is wanted, containing from 5 to 12 rooms. Rent not to exceed $350 per annum. Apply at 18 Exchange street, sept 3-1f

HOUSE FOR SALE.—A thorough built brick House, perfectly new, in a desirable situation, in the vicinity of Bowdoin square. Apply at 18 Exchange street.

1810 Aug 29

TO LET.—A first rate store, in the vicinity of City Hall, well calculated for a merchant Tailor. Apply at 18 Exchange street.

1810 Aug 29

NOW EXHIBITING.—at the ATHENEUM, Pearl st., Panini's Grand Painting of ANCIENT AND MODERN ROME.

No 1—Represents a Picture Gallery, the walls covered with views of ANCIENT ROME, consisting of beautiful Monuments, Fountains, Ruins, Sculpture, &c.

No 2—The magnificent Interior of the Church of St Peters, accurately portrayed in its minutest ornaments.

No 3—is a view of the Exterior of the vast Cathedral Church of St Peters, from the entrance of the grand piazza, with its steps.

No 4—Represents a Picture Gallery, the walls of which are decorated with views of MODERN ROME, consisting of the most celebrated Monuments, Buildings, Villas, Bridges, &c.

TF Descriptive Catalogues to be had at the Room.

Open from 8 o'clock, A. M. till 10, P. M.

Admission 25 cents—Season Tickets 50 cents.

TF Brilliantly illuminated in the Evening. 1810 Aug 29

NOW EXHIBITING.—at the ATHENEUM, Pearl st., Cole's Grand Scriptural Picture of the

ANGEL APPEARING TO THE SHEPHERDS.

Open from 8 A. M. till 10, P. M.

Admission 25 cents—Season Tickets 50 cents.

TF Brilliantly illuminated in the Evening. 1810 Aug 29

NOW EXHIBITING, AT HARDING'S GALLERY, Pearl street, Cole's Grand Scriptural Picture of the

ANGEL APPEARING TO THE SHEPHERDS.

Open from 8 A. M. till 10, P. M.

Admission 25 cents—Season Tickets 50 cents.

TF Brilliantly illuminated in the Evening. 1810 Aug 29

NOW EXHIBITING, AT HARDING'S GALLERY, Pearl street, Cole's Grand Scriptural Picture of the

ANGEL APPEARING TO THE SHEPHERDS.

Open from 8 A. M. till 10, P. M.

Admission 25 cents—Season Tickets 50 cents.

TF Brilliantly illuminated in the Evening. 1810 Aug 29

NOW EXHIBITING, AT HARDING'S GALLERY, Pearl street, Cole's Grand Scriptural Picture of the

ANGEL APPEARING TO THE SHEPHERDS.

Open from 8 A. M. till 10, P. M.

Admission 25 cents—Season Tickets 50 cents.

TF Brilliantly illuminated in the Evening. 1810 Aug 29

NOW EXHIBITING, AT HARDING'S GALLERY, Pearl street, Cole's Grand Scriptural Picture of the

ANGEL APPEARING TO THE SHEPHERDS.

Open from 8 A. M. till 10, P. M.

Admission 25 cents—Season Tickets 50 cents.</

A. WATKINS, THOMSONIAN BOTANIC PHYSIC.
A, Old S. Infirmary, Harvard street, opposite 499 Washington street, Boston.—Has been acquainted with and possessed of a right to use Dr. Samuel Thomson's Patent Vegetable Medicine, for the last 20 years, and administered them in Europe, and South and North America, (including the West India Islands,) and with much success. Other can, at the same street, Infirmary, he has not had this misfortune to lose over patient, although many of them had been in the hands of the members of the Medical Faculty, and some of them abandoned to their (supposed) hopeless fate. As he is so well known in Boston, it is unnecessary to enter very largely into detail of success. The following are a few of his patients:—
1. Thomas Holland's Bennet street, Boston, nearly totally blind in about 5 months, one eye, nearly destroyed, general debility, loss of memory and lame—appeared completely charged with poisons. General health restored; eye sight good—could see to read (without glasses) in 5 courses, &c. better than he could for seven years previous.
2. Mr. Parker, now assistant at the Infirmary, rheumatism and dyspepsia, cured in 3 courses.
Francis Kemlo, 155 Court street, Boston, severe indigestion and spasms, cured in four courses, &c.
Thomas Pierson, of Roxbury, and keeps a stall in the new Market, Boston, croupies in the face and one eye; leg very much swollen and ulcerated from the knee to the ankle for the last 25 weeks—attended by many physicians; nearly cured in 5 weeks.
Miss Charlotte Pierson, do, white swelling, with loss of appetite, &c. under medical treatment 5 months, and unable to walk—cured in 3 weeks.
Jesse Brown, of Roxbury, rheumatic and retro-ventred gout; stomach, knees, ankles and toes greatly affected; has been confined to bed nine weeks—cured in 4 courses, &c.
Miss E. G., his daughter, scrofula or king's evil, cured with 3 courses, &c.
Samuel Hawes, of Weymouth, rheumatism in the back, structures in the urinary passage, general emaciation, &c.—cured in 6 courses, &c.
S. Smith, calico printer, of Lynn, pain in the stomach and back, and structures across the breast, &c.—cured in 2 courses.
Toil, of Shepard street, Lynn, fits and severe cholic, from indigestion—cured in 2 days.
Benj. Morgan of Salem, cancerous or scrofulous humors, had ulcerated, debility and loss of flesh; piles severe, and unable to stand or himself for a considerable time—cured with 5 courses, &c.
Joseph Kerfer, of Salem, rheumatism in his shoulders and arms—cured in 4 courses, &c.
Sarah Teal, of Andover, indigestion, severe pains throughout the system, and piles—cured with 3 courses, &c.
Miss Lucinda Kerr, Sea street, Boston, salt rheum—top of the head one entire scalp—cured in 4 courses, &c.
A. W. cannot at the expense to enumerate more cases, at present. He has not named cases of fevers, they are almost as numerous as the many preparations kept constantly for sale at No. 54 High street.—
The following is a list of the many preparations kept constantly for sale at No. 54 High street:—
Vegetable Elixirs.—Excellent for pain in the stomach and bowels, and Rheumatic complaints.
Pills—for the head aches, bilious complaints, costiveness, piles, cough, sore throat, and to relieve from threatened fevers.
Vegetable Powders—Useful for cold and foul stomach, violent colds, cough, sore throat, and to relieve from threatened fevers.
Vegetable Bitters—For Jaundice, loss of appetite, sickness in the stomach, head aches, &c.
Botanic Ointment—A certain cure for humors, corns, stiff joints, shrunk cords, stiffness in the neck, rheumatic complaints, swelling in the throat, chilblains, chapped hands, weakness and pain in the back, sores, ringworms, cuts and burns.
Olive Ointment—Very useful for Salt Rheum, as many can testify.
Health Restorative—Excellent to remove obstructions in the kidneys, for stranguary, diabetes, and various female complaints.
Cough Powders—Good for whooping cough, and ulcers in the throat.
Artaric Drops—Excellent for indigestion, liver complaints, stranguary, obstructions in the kidneys, and a certain cure for costiveness.
Orders for any of the above medicine will be attended to.
Dr. Mott will undertake the cure (or the relief) of all Chronic Diseases, Wounds, (however of long standing,) Ulcers, Abscesses, internal or external, Gout, Rheumatism, Tiedolorous, Cancers, Imposthumous, and other complaints incident to the human frame.
Dr. M. will personally superintend the various Baths, and attend to the prescriptions of the Medical Gentlemen in behalf of their patients.
Without boasting of the cures that have been performed, or pretending to any wonderful knowledge, he would merely say, he would be most anxious to have his patients, and the system of Medicine itself, useful to the high Medical Talent of Boston, leaving it to an enlightened public to decide.

J. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.
Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.
It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.
This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.
For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.
ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.
It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.
This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.
For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more than thirty years—during half of which time Mr. Foster has been making them on Mr. Heath's plan, and others of approved kinds. Although not for use in a steady and exclusive, he has made them for him self 15 years.

This practice induced him to believe he is not too bold in saying, the Thomsonian treatment removes both disease and the poisons of the Medical Faculty from the human system, when restored to a seasonable time.

For Medicine, Family Rights to use the same, Robinson's Lectures, &c. at the usual prices, apply as above.

ANDREW WATKINS,
Agent for Dr. SAM'L THOMSON,
June 6

J. F. FOSTER'S PATENT IMPROVED TRUSSES.—Mr. FOSTER invites those who desire an effectual remedy for the dangerous and distressing disease of RUPTURE, to call at his office, No. 388 Washington street, in rooms over the Roxbury Dispensary, (at the sign of the Eagle and the Truss,) where he is in constant attendance, to adapt his Trusses to the particular case of the patient, as Successor to Mr. Heath.

Separate rooms will be provided, so that three or four individuals calling at the same time will not be interrupted.

It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the State—Mr. B. having followed the business for more